

Humanities Campus to Career: Job Talk with Dr. Leanne Maunu

Considering a career in teaching, literary scholarship, or academic leadership? Join this job talk with Dr. Leanne Maunu, who will offer key insights about her journey from passionate literature student to accomplished scholar and educator.

Tuesday, April 29th

1:00 PM - 1:45PM

Zoom

Register:

: @ucsccareersuccess

: @ucschumanities

GUEST SPEAKER

Dr. Leanne Maunu

Dean of Languages and Literature, Palomar College

Dr. Maunu graduated from UC San Diego with a BA in English and American Literature, after which she attended graduate school at Indiana University, receiving her Master's and PhD in English, with a PhD minor in French. In 2002, she joined Palomar College as a tenure-track English Professor. In addition to her scholarly work, Leanne has earned numerous accolades for teaching excellence and faculty service. As Dean of Languages and Literature, she oversees instructional programs and student support services.